

It's my understanding that the FCC is introducing a new service called LPFM which could in effect push a certain FM station that I consider very valuable to our community off the easily accessible air. Please reevaluate the importance of K-Love (88.5) as a broadcasting service & the insurmountable service they are providing to all who listen. Thank you, A Concerned Citizen, Amy Brown